

Joost Achterberg Attorney at law

Specialisms:

Business Structuring
Financial Supervision
FinTech

Sector:

Banking and Finance

Contact information:

+31 20 5506 826
joost.achterberg@kvdl.com

Joost Achterberg joined Kennedy Van der Laan in 2006 and is a member of the teams Banking & Finance and FinTech.

Joost specializes in litigation law, securities law and financial supervision law. He represents international banks and other financial businesses. In his practice Joost offers both litigation and advice; this combination keeps him sharp.

In 2011 and 2014 Joost was seconded to the legal departments of SNS Reaal and ABN AMRO BANK.

Joost is a member of the professional organizations Association For Financial Law (VVFR) and International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA).

Kennedy Van der Laan

Practice areas

- Securities law
- Procedural law (financial-law and commercial disputes)
- Financial supervisory legislation
- Insolvency law

Education

- Securities law, Grotius Academy, 2011 (cum laude)
- VU University of Amsterdam, Private law, criminal law and criminology, 2006

Professional Organizations

- Member of the professional organization Securities Law Association (VVER)
- Member of the Litigation Commission of the international professional organization Association Internationale de Jeunes Avocats (AIJA)
- Member of Kluwer's Financial Law Focus Group